

SOURCE's Partner of the Month – October 2017

Name of Organization: Commodore John Rogers Newcomer Student Support Team (CJR NeSST)

Mission: Commodore has a large and growing “newcomer” ESOL population. The CJR Newcomer Student Support Team (NeSST) will help serve the needs of students who have recently immigrated from Latin America, primarily in middle school science and math classes.

Programs and Services-

- Supporting students in classes
- Leading small groups
- Translating documents
- Supporting parent conferences and/or conversations
- Assisting lead teacher with other responsibilities

Inspiration: Our students keep us motivated to come back, do our best, and always strive to improve.

Greatest Asset: CJR Faculty. The teachers you will be working together with in order to help these students are phenomenal. They are passionate about teaching, deeply care and know each of their students, and are committed to their students growing and learning which is why they go through great lengths to help you get involved in these students' lives.

Biggest Challenge: Finding committed volunteers. We need YOU! Trust us when we tell you that you will find this opportunity to be very rewarding!

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of Spanish and English
- Comfort communicating and breaking down academic material for student learning
- Interest in working with middle school students and/or youth in East Baltimore

Involvement Opportunities: Volunteers are needed on Monday-Thursday from 9:30 am – 3:00 pm
Fridays 11:25 am - 1:45 pm

Please fill out online Google application and mail resume to glenwick@thecjrschool.org upon completion. We are looking for volunteers to start ASAP! Our students need YOU!

Google application link:
<https://tinyurl.com/CJRNeSST>

CJR NeSST

CONTACT:

Dan Soffer & Ricardo Perez

Email

dsoffer3@jhmi.edu ,
rperezd1@jhu.edu ,
glenwick@thecjrschool.org