SOURCE (Student Outreach Resource Center), the community service and service-learning center for the JHU Schools of Medicine, Nursing, and Public Health, encourages all employees to give to the annual United Way of Central Maryland campaign. When designating your gift, please consider your choices. Several options can directly support a number of SOURCE’s partnering community-based organizations. SOURCE partners with approximately 100 community-based organizations throughout Baltimore. In turn, these organizations provide meaningful, mutually beneficial community engagement opportunities for our students, faculty, and staff. We ask that you consider supporting our SOURCE partners!

- Donate all or part of your gift to the Johns Hopkins Neighborhood Fund to support agencies that serve our neighboring communities, and have existing relationships with Johns Hopkins. Designations made to the Johns Hopkins Neighborhood Fund will help support nonprofit organizations by addressing targeted community needs such as: Community Revitalization, Employment, Health, Public Safety. Non-profits located close to our JHU campuses are eligible to apply for funding through this grant program. Several of our SOURCE partners have been awarded funds through the Johns Hopkins Neighborhood Fund.

- Donate all or part of your gift to non-profit health and human services organization(s) by designating the organization’s name or number. There is a $50 minimum for each agency you designate by name or number. On the eWay online pledging system, search for the agency and click on the name of the agency to allocate your donation or check.
