7. Save the Date(s)! SOURCE’s Baltimore Week & Tri-School Day of Service!
SOURCE can help you kick off your academic year with passion and style! Mark your calendars for these important dates: SOURCE’s Baltimore Week (Oct 2nd – Oct 9th) will consist of a slate of awesome community-based events including an East Baltimore Community Bus Tour and SOURCE’s Fall Tri-School Day of Service, where 6-8 community partner sites will host volunteers on Sat, Oct 3rd. Look for more details here soon!

8. SOURCE Champion of the Month – Lisa Townsend
The Champion of the Month aims to tell one story of many from individuals who commit themselves to service. This month, SOURCE proudly features Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health Faculty member Lisa Townsend! Lisa works in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences and teaches a service-learning practicum. Lisa is a former SOURCE Faculty Fellow having participated in the SOURCE Faculty Fellows Program during the 2014-2015 academic year. Learn about Lisa’s passion for service-learning in our shared community by visiting Champ of the Month – Lisa Townsend.

9. SOURCE Partner of the Month – The Door
Each month, SOURCE acknowledges one of its partnering community-based organizations or student groups. This month SOURCE salutes The Door! The Door is committed to facilitating the transformation and holistic growth of youth, families and communities through collaborative partnerships, direct service, capacity building and resource development. To learn more about The Door and the great work they are doing in the community, visit Partner of the Month – The Door.

10. Hopkins Students Shed Light on School Mental Health Services
Last school year a team of dedicated JHU MPH students worked with Baltimore Curriculum Project (BCP) to better understand how mental health services are provided in Baltimore City Public Schools (BCPS). The team conducted a needs assessment and gap analysis to better identify gaps in mental health service provision, reviewed the available literature and history of mental health services in BSPS and interviewed stakeholders. Read the entire BCP article here to see what their research indicated and how the group worked with BCP to address their findings.

11. Federal Work-Study Position Available with SOURCE
SOURCE is seeking a student to fill an available FWS Position! Students must be eligible for federal-work study, and be full-time students at the Schools of Public Health or Nursing. The period of employment for the position is from July or August 2015 through May 2016. The position is for 6-8 hours per week, with a hiring salary of $16-20/hour. ONE TIME VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

14. Volunteer at the Purses for PLASE Fundraising Event: Fri, Sept 11th and Sat, Sept 12th
Project PLASE (People Lacking Ample Shelter and Employment) provides housing and hope to 900 homeless persons every year. Purses for PLASE is our yearly fundraiser for client services. Come volunteer with us and sell gently used purses at the Flower Mart in Mount Vernon! For more information about PLASE please go to www.projectplase.org. To volunteer, email Hope at hsanders@projectplase.org. To get a look at Flower Mart go to www.flowermart.org

15. Ambassadors Needed for Moveable Feast Dining Out For Life Event: Thurs, Sept 18th
It's almost that time again – Dining Out for Life is fast approaching! Mark your calendar for Thursday, Sept 18th and get ready to support Moveable Feast while enjoying breakfast, lunch or dinner at an area establishment. Whether dining at an old favorite or trying something new, a portion of the day’s proceeds (ranging from 25%-100%) goes directly to bringing healthy food and hope to severely ill neighbors in need. Interested in helping out for this event? One big way to help is to become a volunteer Ambassador! Ambassadors work in a participating restaurant on the night of the event, greeting and thanking diners, answering questions about Moveable Feast and collecting optional contribution envelopes from diners. Each volunteer is required to attend one brief training session. Ambassadors are a huge reason Dining Out for Life is such a success! To sign up to be an Ambassador visit http://www.diningoutforlife.com/baltimore/volunteer/. To view a current listing of participating restaurants visit http://www.diningoutforlife.com/baltimore/restaurants/. Questions? Contact Mellisa Colimore at 410-327-3420 x 31 or via email at mcolimore@mfeast.org.

ONGOING VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

17. Interested in Reproductive Health? Volunteer at Planned Parenthood of MD
Planned Parenthood of Maryland (PPM) is a not-for-profit family planning agency that provides high-quality, affordable reproductive health care for women, men and teens. PPM’s mission is to enable all Marylanders to have access to a wide range of high quality, affordable reproductive health care services. Volunteers provide vital support to the staff, organization, and the mission of PPM. Volunteers will work directly with Planned Parenthood staff to assist with relevant administrative tasks and clerical duties which are major components that aid the organization to operate successfully. Volunteer opportunities occur during regular center hours, usually Monday through Friday, so this is a great opportunity for people who are looking to volunteer on a regular basis. Every volunteer must be at least 18 years of age and complete an orientation. All volunteers are subject to a background check. For more information visit PPM Volunteer.

18. The Franciscan Center Seeks “Responsive Services” Community Outreach Volunteers on Tuesdays
A volunteer is needed to serve as a Community Outreach Coordinator in the Franciscan Center's Responsive Services department. The volunteer will assist in meeting the many and varied needs of families and individuals in crisis who come to the Franciscan Center seeking assistance. Help is needed on Tuesdays between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., interacting one-on-one with those seeking assistance to help assess their critical and immediate needs and participate in meeting these needs. The Community Outreach Coordinator will learn Client Track, the program evaluation software used to track and analyze programs and services offered at the Franciscan Center, and employ this software in recording and evaluating services provided. The volunteer will interact one-on-one with the Franciscan Center's clients. Since the men, women and children whom we serve at the Center are among Baltimore's most vulnerable citizens, this experience will provide unique insight into public health issues in the Baltimore community, as well as the specific needs and challenges faced by Baltimore families and individuals who are struggling to feed their families. The majority of the Franciscan Center's clients have household incomes at or below 150% of the Federal Poverty Level. Many are challenged with mental health issues or addictions. They are often forced to choose between feeding themselves and their families and paying their rent or purchasing their life-sustaining medications. The Franciscan Center serves as a "one-stop shop" for families and individuals in crisis, helping them to achieve stability by meeting their basic human needs and empowering them with the tools and resources necessary to begin building self-sufficient lives. In interested, contact Angela Hall, 410-467-5340 x113 or ahall@fcbmore.org.

19. Enjoy working with Youth? Become a SquashWise Academic Tutor or Squash Coach
Volunteer as an academic tutor or squash coach with SquashWise at Meadow Mill Athletic Club, on the Homewood campus at Johns Hopkins University, or at Loyola University. SquashWise is a unique youth development program providing long-term academic and social support to public school students in Baltimore City, combining intensive academic tutoring with instruction in the sport of squash. SquashWise is a college access program using squash opportunities to motivate students and open doors for their future, both academically and athletically. There are daily opportunities to volunteer during afternoon sessions at our three locations. SquashWise seeks academic tutors to work with students in the classroom as well as squash players to help coach on court. No squash or tutoring experience is required to be an academic volunteer. If you think you might be interested in becoming a SquashWise volunteer please call or email Zach Bradley (410-245-0766 or volunteer@baltimoresquashwise.org). Visit online and learn more at www.baltimoresquashwise.org.

20. Coaching and Teaching Middle School Sports Teams with Parks & People Foundation
Parks & People Foundation is dedicated to supporting a wide range of recreational and educational opportunities and seeks several volunteers to fill positions working with middle school sports teams:
Volunteer Assistant Coach: this position will teach kids the importance of sportsmanship and help them build good character through your service as a positive role model. This is a great opportunity for enthusiastic people with a love for recreation. Knowledge of specific sports is not required! Volunteers must be 18 years of age or older and willing to commit to volunteering at least once per week for a six-week season. For more information, contact Kara Berger at kara.berger@parksandpeople.org or 410-448-5663 ext. 113.
Volunteer Environmental Educator: Parks & People Foundation seeks volunteers with a love for the environment to teach the importance of environmental stewardship to middle school sports teams. Environmental Educators will have the opportunity to work with many sports teams and instill a love of the environment in young athletes. This is a great opportunity for people who feel a sense of responsibility to protect the environment and want to share this with young people. Volunteers must be 18 years of age or older and have experience in environmental science, education, or a related field. For more information, contact Kara Berger at kara.berger@parksandpeople.org or 410-448-5663 ext. 113.

26. Senior Positions Available at the Baltimore City Health Department
Founded in 1793, Baltimore City Health Department is the oldest health department in the country, with 1,000 employees and an annual budget of $130 million that aims to promote health and improve well-being through education, policy/advocacy, and direct service delivery. The BCHD has two senior positions available. Click the links for more information on each position:

Chief Policy and Engagement Officer: This is an executive level position reporting to the Deputy Chief of Staff. The Chief Policy and Engagement Officer, with guidance from the Commissioner of Health, is responsible for policy development and proactive advancement/implementation of BCHD’s policy agenda. The Chief Policy and Engagement Officer will direct the internal “think tank” of the Health Department, overseeing a team including Legislative Affairs Director, policy analysts, epidemiologists, researchers, and community organizers, and lead the effort to make Baltimore the national model for public health and policy innovation. Qualifications include Master’s Degree or higher in Public Policy, Public Health, Health Policy, JD or related field from an accredited college or university; five to seven years of public health and/or public policy experience at local, state, and/or federal level; five to seven years of experience in a senior management role and strong organizational, strategic planning and project management skills.

Communications Specialist: Candidates must possess exceptional communication skills, and a proven ability to work in a fast-moving environment, as they will be responsible for successfully utilizing emerging technologies along with traditional media sources to help communicate BCHD messages and promote BCHD’s vision and programs to Baltimore City and to national/international audiences. The Communications Specialist will work together with the Public Information Officer (PIO) to promote public health in Baltimore and communicate BCHD messages to media outlets. Minimum qualifications include a Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university in media/communications, health communications, journalism, public health, or related fields; one year of national media relations/public relations/communications experience and knowledge of Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel programs.

31. Dining Out For Life with Moveable Feast: Thurs, Sept 18th
It’s almost that time again – Dining Out for Life is fast approaching! Mark your calendar for Thursday, Sept 18th and get ready to support Moveable Feast while enjoying breakfast, lunch or dinner at an area establishment. Whether dining at an old favorite or trying something new, a portion of the day’s proceeds (ranging from 25%-100%) goes directly to bringing healthy food and hope to severely ill neighbors in need. Interested in helping out for this event? One big way to help is to become a volunteer Ambassador! Ambassadors work in a participating restaurant on the night of the event, greeting and thanking diners, answering questions about Moveable Feast and collecting optional contribution envelopes from diners. Each volunteer is required to attend one brief training session. Ambassadors are a huge reason Dining Out For Life is such a success! To sign up to be an Ambassador visit http://www.diningoutforlife.com/baltimore/volunteer/. To view a current listing of participating restaurants visit http://www.diningoutforlife.com/baltimore/restaurants/. Questions? 32. Help Support SquashWise in the Baltimore Running Festival
This October, SquashWise academic staff members are running in the Baltimore Running Festival. Their goal is to raise $5,000 for SquashWise and they need your help! Baltimore SquashWise is a non-profit youth development organization working with students in Baltimore City Public Schools. Our program provides tutoring, mentoring, and coaching in the sport of squash, motivating students to excel as scholar-athletes. This year, SquashWise’s first cohort is graduating from high school and moving on to college! Your gift will help more and more students achieve these same goals. You can check out their inspirational video here or donate directly on their fundraising page.

33. Donate to The Franciscan Center’s Summer Clothing Drive
The Franciscan Center serves as a "one-stop shop" for families and individuals in crisis from throughout Baltimore, helping them to achieve stability by meeting their basic human needs and empowering them with the tools and resources necessary to build self-sufficient lives. During the summer season, the Franciscan Center is receiving fewer donations of food, clothing and toiletries. They are in desperate need of summer clothing - ESPECIALLY FOR MEN - and need your help to continue serving our neighbors in need! The Franciscan Center is the area's largest supplier of free, seasonally appropriate clothing for men, women and children, but right now their racks are looking pretty bare. Please consider making a donation of gently used clothing to the Franciscan Center today, or take up a collection of clothing at your church or office. You can deliver your donation to 101 W. 23rd Street, Baltimore, MD, 21218. Please call Angela Hall at: 410-467-5340 ext. 113 to arrange a pickup.
