New Announcements

Mayor, Police Commissioner Announce Precautionary Adjustments to Operations at Southwest Police District

Yesterday evening, the Baltimore Police Department announced that an officer had tested positive for COVID-19 at the Southwest Police District.

As a precaution, Commissioner Michael Harrison has ordered all officers assigned to the station to self-quarantine to limit any potential spread. The Southwest District and all vehicles assigned to the district are being sanitized. Units from other districts will be used to help maintain police coverage within the Southwest District.
