“Community service is an opportunity to build connections that shift power imbalances and to invest my energy into supporting work led by a local CBO and community interests.”

What do you do as your community engagement activity?

I help coordinate The Identity Clinic as a SOURCE Service Scholar with Living Classrooms Foundation

How much time do you spend on service per week/month?

6-10 hours/week

How did you begin to work with your community-based organization (CBO)?

Living Classrooms Foundation (LCF) and SOURCE were awarded a grant through the JHU Idea Lab to develop a service that would help residents of East Baltimore re-claim official forms of identification, such as a State ID, birth certificate, and social security card. I was selected to be one of the SOURCE Service Scholars working with LCF to launch and operate the Clinic.
